BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Harriet Hankin was one of the first schoolteachers in Bisbee. She was born in Kansas and spent her childhood in Santa Fe, New Mexico. She graduated from the San Jose normal school in 1895 and then came to Bisbee as one of four teachers. She taught for six years and married Dr. W. E. Hankin. She was active in the Bisbee Woman's club and was local chairman of the Arizona State Historical Society. She wrote articles and assisted other authors with research.
