MS 372
Hutchinson, Charles C. Collection
1910

DESCRIPTION

The Hutchinson collection entails materials associated with activities of the Arizona Constitutional Convention in 1910. A broken scrapbook holds published memorials and propositions drafted by the convention and collected by Hutchinson. A blank roll call convention form listing all delegates and a place for recording their votes is present along with a blank proposition form. Two lists reflect the names of delegates along with their addresses and occupations. Also present are two committee appointment forms with the names of delegates assigned to each.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Charles C. Hutchinson was a prominent sheep rancher in northern Arizona. He was born July 15, 1852 in Sutton, Vermont and graduated from Dartmouth College in 1879. Shortly after graduation he came to Arizona and became involved with sheep ranching. Hutchinson organized his business into the Grand Canyon Sheep Company. He was involved in improvements of the quality of sheep breeding and the development of new generations of animals for the Arizona environment. He was elected as a member of the Arizona Constitutional Convention in 1910 and died December 12, 1913.
