PROCESSED BY: Emalie Schaefer, 2016.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: William Bigglestone was born in Chicago, Illinois in 1924. Due to his father’s health, the family moved to Tucson in 1935. After graduating from Tucson High in 1943, Bigglestone enlisted in the U.S. Army. He returned from the war in 1945 and enrolled at the University of Arizona, then later Stanford University where he obtained a Master's degree. He worked as an archivist at Oberlin College until he retired and returned to Tucson in 1982.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: This collection is organized into three series:

Series I: Family History and Personal papers includes Bigglestone family genealogy and Rieke genealogy, Dr. Harry C. and Ruth Rieke Bigglestone’s life while living in Tucson, family correspondence, documentation of William’s life while in the Army and his brother, Harry Bigglestone II, while in the Navy, some information on William and Mary Grady Bigglestone, Harry’s life and employment, and war memorabilia from both Harry and William’s war service.

Series II: Research and Publications includes William’s research on jazz musicians, local Tucson artwork, Tucson, Catalina Vista neighborhood, Tucson High School, Korean War, and World War II. He used some of his research to write publications on the Catalina Vista Neighborhood, Edmiston Journal, Korean War, and World War II. Some of his publications were written while at Oberlin and others while in Tucson. Also includes his autobiography and a book he wrote on his family genealogy.

Series III: Photographs ranges from portraits of early Bigglestone family members from 1883 to William and his second wife, Kay, enjoying family holidays and vacations. The photographs capture the essence of the Bigglestone family through college graduations, weddings, home renovations, holidays, and vacations. Navy and Army photographs, as well as greeting cards from friends and family and images of Bigglestone relatives. William also donated family photo albums and oversized portraits.

SUBJECT TERMS: Bigglestone family; Bigglestone family -- Photographs; Bigglestone, William E; Bigglestone, Harry C; Tucson High School (Tucson, Ariz.); World War, 1939-1945 -- Soldiers -- Correspondence; Korean War, 1950-1953 -- Arizona; Jazz musicians
