Board Room:

The boardroom seats up to 50 theater-style or 24 in a hollow square, and comes equipped with a projection screen, DVD/VHS/TV combo unit, whiteboard, internet connection, and full IP video conferencing equipment.

Courtyard:

The courtyard is an open air venue featuring a small stream, authentic front porches from Tucson homes of the 1800's, and a abundant Territorial era flowers. The courtyard is another great space for serving cocktails, or may serve as a receiving area for the Treasures Gallery.

Treasures Gallery:

One of the most exceptional spaces in Tucson, guests are surrounded on three sides by priceless artifacts from Arizona History, including Wyatt Earp's six-shooter, Geronimo's rifle and a Spanish colonial silver collection. The venue can hold up to 120 guests for a seated dinner or 175 for a cocktail reception, with access from the lobby and the courtyard.
