

Greg Scott is a third generation Arizonan. Educated in public schools in Yuma and Tucson, he graduated with a BA in History from the University of Arizona and earned Graduate Degrees from both U of A and NAU. Scott taught Social Studies for 35 years in Santa Cruz County, mostly in bilingual classrooms. He was a Traditional Music Roster Artist for the Arizona Commission on the Arts and spent nearly two decades as a member of the Speakers' Bureau of the Arizona Humanities Council. Now retired, he enjoys volunteer work for the Arizona Historical Society and other non-profits and being a grandparent.
