

Mr. Jeffrey P. Horwitz is a retired teacher with over thirty years in the classroom. He graduated from the University of Arizona with a degree in Elementary Education. Jeff currently lives in Tubac, Arizona where he has lived in the historic Santa Cruz River Valley for over thirty years. Jeff is currently serving on the Tubac Historical Society Board, and the Arizona Historical Society Southern Chapter Board. He has a passion for Arizona history and is an avid Arizona Wildcat and Notre Dame sports fan. Jeff also enjoys tour cycling and has done many tours in North America and Europe. He also is involved in many volunteer activities in Santa Cruz County.