

CURRENT and UPCOMING AHS EXHIBITS and EVENTS

Information about several of these activities and more can be found at ArizonaHistoricalSociety.org.

Exhibit -- Above and Beyond: Arizona and the Medal of Honor

157 U.S. Army troops received the Medal of Honor while campaigning in Arizona. These bravest of the brave, and nearly a dozen more Arizona-born or Arizona residents who fought in later conflicts, are featured in this special traveling exhibit.

-- On display now through November 2, 2014, at the AHS Museum at Papago Park, 1300 N College Ave., Tempe, AZ.

-- On display November 12, 2014, through May 3, 2015, at the AHS Sanguinetti House Museum and Gardens, 240 S. Madison Ave., Yuma, AZ.

-- On display May 15, 2015, through October 25, 2015, at the AHS Pioneer Museum, 2340 N. Fort Valley Rd., Flagstaff, AZ.

-- On display November 12, 2015, through May 7, 2016, at the AHS Arizona History Museum, 949 E. 2nd St., Tucson, AZ.

AHS Arizona 150 Exhibits

Collections in celebration of the Arizona Historical Society's 150th anniversary. Unique exhibits at each museum.

AHS Museum at Papago Park in Tempe -- On display now through January 17, 2015.

AHS Pioneer Museum in Flagstaff -- On display now through April 30, 2015.

AHS Arizona History Museum in Tucson -- On display now with end date not yet determined.

Also at AHS Museum at Papago Park in Tempe:

Gallery of Natural History -- New exhibit now open. Showcasing the rocks, minerals, and fossils of the AHS Natural History Collection.

Festive Foods -- Holiday exhibit with a feast of rocks-that-look-like food. On display November 8, 2014, through February 7, 2015.

Bracero -- A traveling exhibit from the Smithsonian exploring the complex topic of migrant workers from the mid-20th century. On display March 17, 2015, through May 7, 2015.

Also at AHS Sanguinetti House Museum and Gardens in Yuma:

Grand Re-Opening of the Museum and Gardens -- Starting November 8, 2014, visit the newly refreshed cottage home and rose gardens of Yuma entrepreneur E. F. Sanguinetti.

Garden Talks / Live Demonstrations -- Activities hosted every other Saturday from January 3, 2015, through March 28, 2015.

Also at AHS Arizona History Museum in Tucson:

Images of AHS throughout the years -- Library exhibit on display now through January 30, 2015.

Native American Rodeo Photography -- Exhibit featuring the colorful and vivid photography of Pulitzer Prize nominee Ken Blackbird, complimented by an exhibit about the history of Southern Arizona Rodeo traditions. On display February 2015 through May 2015.

I Am Tucson -- An exhibit on the meaning of place from the perspective of those who have lived in Tucson and Southern Arizona, both past and present. On display during Summer 2015.