

Hidden and Revealed

Revisiting the African-American Experience in Northern Arizona

February 23, 2017

A NIGHT AT THE MUSEUM PRODUCTION

with Arizona Historical Society, National Park Service, and Kaibab National Forest

Opening Reception at AHS Pioneer Museum, 5:30 pm, 2340 N. Fort Valley Rd.

Presentation at Coconino Center for the Arts, 6:30-8:30 pm, 2300 N. Fort Valley Rd.

Three speakers specializing in northern Arizona African-American history will present their recent research on communities in Williams, Grand Canyon, Flagstaff, and the southwest in general. This event is a FREE mini-symposium jointly hosted by the Arizona Historical Society, National Park Service, and Kaibab National Forest.

MARGARET HANGAN is the Forest Archeologist and Heritage Program Manager for Kaibab National Forest and has published on the history of the black community in Williams, AZ.

BEN CARVER is a public lands historian who received a PhD in History at NAU.

JACK REID earned a PhD in History at NAU, published articles on Flagstaff's black community and currently speaks on northern Arizona history.

For more information contact jhough@azhs.gov, 928-774-6272