Arizona Medical Association
1897-1969

DESCRIPTION

This small collection consists mostly of programs from the annual meetings of the Arizona Medical Association from 1897-1902, 1905-1917, 1919-1929, 1931-1933 and 1966. There are newspaper clippings about Association meetings, the bulk from the 1930s. The collection also includes the 1969 Association annual meeting and membership manual. Finally, there is a letter about the 1942 annual meeting of the Association and the full text of the Occupational Disease Compensation Bill.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The Arizona Medical Association started in the late 1880s, spearheaded by Dr. Joshua Miller and four other physicians who struggled to conduct their practice due to a lack of facilities and a wide area of land to cover to assist and consult their clients. They held their first annual meeting in 1892 and the association continues to be active today.

ACQUISITION

Donated by the Arizona Medical Association in 1975.
