MS 0066
Mrs. F.W. Becker
Papers, 1889-1909

DESCRIPTION

This small collection consists of two folders concerning mining activities. The first folder in this collection has two lode mining claims from Silverbell Mine in Pima County, and a third lode mining claim that is likely from Silverbell, but is too damaged to tell. The second folder has two cancelled checks, one receipt, one telegram and two postcards related to mining in Tombstone and Eliphalet B. Gage.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

E. B. Gage was the director or president of several companies, including mining companies with interests in northern Sonora, Arizona and southern California. He was especially instrumental in revitalizing Tombstone business by restarting the mining industry in the early 1900s.

ACQUISITION

Donated by Mabel Knagge, on behalf of Mrs. F.W. Becker and family, in November 1964.

ACCESS

There are no restrictions on access to this collection.
