BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Jasper Newton Harber was born in Calico Rock, Arkansas around 1883. He moved to Seminole, Oklahoma Territory, where he practiced medicine and was elected mayor of Seminole. After becoming wealthy from the several oil wells he owned, he opened a hospital in Seminole. He married Mary Helen Hunter on July 4, 1906, in Shawnee, Oklahoma Territory. He retired from medical practice in 1936, and in 1938 he received a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Oklahoma. That same year, he and his family moved to Phoenix, Arizona, where he was involved in real estate development in the Phoenix area and in Cave Creek. He served as State Chairman for the State Democratic Central Committee, and was active in the Boy Scouts and other community organizations. The Harbers had no children, but raised a niece, Irene Harber, as a daughter. J.N. Harber died August 8, 1962, in Phoenix, Arizona.

Mary Helen Hunter Harber was born September 15, 1884 in Greenville, West Virginia. She was active in the Eastern Star, the Rainbow Girls, and the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She died March 6, 1963, in Phoenix, Arizona.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The J.N. and Mary Harber Collection contains 9 scrapbooks, 3 small photograph albums, 3 boxes of photographs, 1 box of loose ephemera, and a few artifacts. The materials date from the 1880s to the 1990s.

The photographs, both loose and in albums, consist mainly of family photos of the Harber and Hunter families, and the Harber residences. Photos date from the late 1800s to the 1970s. Photos in Box 4 were taken from a photo album with the original order preserved. Individual photos are described in Appendix I.

The scrapbooks contain newspaper clippings, letters, cards, certificates, and awards pertaining to the Harber family. They date from the 1920s to the 1970s.

The loose documents consist of newspaper clippings, letters, articles, political items, and business items pertaining to the Harber family. They date from the 1930s to the 1990s.

The artifacts consist of awards, medals, and framed certificates presented to members of the Harber family.
