Hill, Rose
Personal papers, 1897-1967

DESCRIPTION

Hill family correspondence, bills, receipts, recipes, embroidery patterns, scrapbook and other personal papers relating to personal business, travels around Arizona, and home matters. Also included is promotional literature for the U.S. Army Women's Army Corps, 1944, and Old Pueblo Club menus, 1944. Miscellaneous items include Southern Pacific Railroad train tickets, a brochure for Triangle T Guest Ranch (Dragoon, Ariz.), and "Furies money" from the world premiere of movie "The Furies" in Tucson in July 1950, and a suit and judgment record of the Tucson Merchants Associations. Correspondence from family in Oklahoma, Texas, and Arkansas reflect concerns about the depression and family affairs.

4 boxes, 2 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Rose Hill was born April 6, 1879 in Washington County, Mississippi. In 1913, she moved to Tucson where she worked for 12 years for Meyers & Bloom. About 1926, she moved to San Francisco and at a later date she returned to Tucson to live with her sister Blanche Hill.
