

Preserving Your Home Movies

A workshop presented by the Arizona Historical Society Library & Archives

Saturday, April 7, 2018,

11am - 1pm

Arizona History Museum
949 E 2nd Street
Tucson, AZ 85719

Do you have home movies from your family and have no idea how to care for them? Do you want to find a way to watch them now? With this workshop, we will cover all those concerns and more as we discuss why home movies are historically significant and how best to care for them for future generations. We will also cover how to transfer your films to modern viewing formats and what questions to ask when working with a transfer house. Group size is limited, register early to reserve your spot.

Workshop cost: $10
