READ-STRAUSS PHOTO COLLECTION

PHOTOS, 1862-1942 (bulk: 1880s-1920s)

DESCRIPTION

Family photographs of the Read and Strauss families in Tucson and Los Angeles. The collection includes many portraits as well as photos of Tucson, San Xavier Mission and photographs of various Indian groups. The collection includes a group of stereo cards but they are not of Arizona material.

3 boxes, 1.5 linear feet

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Charles Moses Strauss (1840-1892), superintendent of public instruction and Mayor of Tucson (1883-1884), came to Tucson in 1879. He held many public offices and was instrumental in getting the University of Arizona in Tucson. He was married to Julia Kaufmann and they had three daughters and a son. One of their daughters was Gertrude Strauss Read, (1870-1935), known as Trudie, who married William Read in 1889. William Selleck Read (1855-1912) came to Tucson in 1876 and owned the Fashion Saloon and was a manager of L. Zeckendorf and Company and held extensive property interests in Mexico. Trudie maintained the property in Mexico after Read's death. Read and Trudie had two daughters, Olive Read (1890-1968) and Lacy Read (1894-1966). Olive married Sidney Graf in 1913. Olive Read Graf owned a business in Los Angeles called Olive Read Creations. The Graf's had two children, Madelyn Graf (b. 1914) and Lawrence (b. 1917).
