CREDIT LINE: Arizona Historical Society, PC 116 – Scavone Real Estate Album Collection

PROCESSED BY: Kim Frontz prepared finding aid in October 2002. Finding aid was re-created in 2014 by Mary Flynn.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: The Scavone family lived in Tucson in the 1960s and 1970s; one of the sons worked for Valley National Bank. The background of the albums is unknown.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: Fourteen photograph albums with photographs and loan information for houses in Tucson, primarily located between Park Avenue and Country Club Road, and Fifth Street north to Glenn, and taken in the mid-1930's. Each page contains a photograph of a house, many newly constructed, with the name of the owner, address, appraised value, loan amount, and monthly payment breakdown listed. A few homes are from other areas of town including Catalina Foothills, San Clemente, and Colonia Solano Neighborhoods. Entries within albums are organized by loan number, then by property number (address), and by owner names.
