PC 138
TULLAR, ROBERT S. 1915-1993

DESCRIPTION

This collection consists photos of Tullar family portraits, scenic photos of Tucson streets and buildings, and a few selective photos of Fort Lowell ruins. All photos were taken in the time period of 1904-1906. Some family photos are particularly interesting for the period clothing, landscape scenes, and old Tucson buildings. Robert Tullar is not represented in any of these photos.

1 Box, .25 linear feet

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Robert S. Tullar, a former Pima County Superior court judge, was born in 1915 in Waukesha, Wisconsin and came to Tucson in 1937. He attended the University of Arizona College of Law from 1943 to 1946. In 1953, while as Pima Superior Court Judge, Tullar presided over polygamy charges against 26 Short Creek male citizens. Tullar retired from the bench in 1959 to return to private law practice with the McCarty, Chandler, Tullar, and Udall law firm. He served as president of the Arizona Court Judges Association, vice president of the Arizona Tuberculosis Association, and was a member of several community organizations. Tullar died in May 1993.

RELATED NOTE

A manuscript collection (MC 1105) on Robert S. Tullar is also maintained by the Historical Society.

ACQUISITION

The photo collection was received at the Historical Society in March 1992 from Lori Tullar.
