ARRANGEMENT

The collection is not arranged in any order but an item-level listing description is available to aid in locating images.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Amateur photographer Gaius John Upham was born in Wisconsin in 1877, and came to Arizona in 1902 to work for the Southern Pacific Railroad. He also taught a few years at Tucson High School. From 1914 until his death in 1940, he was the insurance agent for Northwest Mutual Life Insurance Company. He was married to Lydia Adella Reiner and they had two daughters, Muriel and Helen. Helen married Harold F. Vinson and they homesteaded in the Hidden Valley area west of Sabino Canyon in 1927.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Photographs, taken by Gaius Upham, primarily of Tucson and southern Arizona, and Southern Pacific Railroad employees and their workplace. Southern Pacific Railroad images include the old and new railroad depots, office employees, interiors of an office and shop, exterior views of the railroad yard, the aftermath of a fire in the yard, and a 1907 train wreck at Heaton.

There are a few photographs of Fort Lowell (1904); Tumacacori (1922); street scenes in Nogales and Cochise, Arizona and Nacoziari, Mexico; birds-eye-views of Bisbee; and the Florence Hotel, state prison, and Casa Grande ruins. There are mining images of Twin Buttes, San Xavier Mine, Old Glory Gold Mine and mill, Sierra Colorado Silver Mine, and an arrastra near Oro Blanco (1904). Images of the Santa Rita Mountains include a woman posed shooting a pistol, White House cabin, the Robinson Hitch ranch near Greaterville, and a picnic.

There is an image of the ceremony laying the cornerstone of Tucson High School, Smith's Ranch and Waverly Farms east of Tucson, Holladay School, Carnegie Library and the military plaza, and snow on Stone Avenue. There are photographs of Wheeler's swimming pool and a Chinese dragon in a parade (about 1910). Images are present of the family homes including a Jaastad-designed home at 828 E 4th Street; the others at 945 E Speedway, and 721 E 4th Street, and an office at 131 Stone Avenue.

Also present are images of Sabino Canyon picnics, the Santa Cruz River flood of 1926, the traffic control sign on the back road of Mount Lemmon, a Mount Lemmon hunting trip, Fort Lowell ruins about 1904, Tumacacori in 1922, a trip along Redington Road, a rifle range in the desert, and Harold Vinson's ranch house in the Hidden Valley area near Sabino Canyon Road. There are images of Tucson's mule-powered trolley (1906), A. J. Houston's Studebaker automobile (1915), and Fowler's airplane on the University of Arizona campus (1911).

There are a few images of Hostler Outfit, Battery D stationed at Nogales during World War I in 1915 showing soldiers, army camp tents, and a work crew.
