PC 147*Walker, Francis Marion, 1870-1962
Walker photograph album, 1900-1905*DESCRIPTION

Small photograph album primarily contains images of Tucson buildings taken about 1900. A few photographs are of an area along the Santa Cruz River including the Isla de Cuba neighborhood, women washing clothes in the river, and boys with slingshots in the Santa Cruz River bed with the San Agustin Mission in the background. The buildings include Holladay School, the Steinfeld house/Owl's Club at 300 N. Main, Elk's Club, Carnegie Library, the W. C. Davis home at 215 N. Stone Ave., First Baptist Church at 235 N. Stone Ave., St. Augustine Cathedral (before 1904), and the Hotel San Augustine. There are two views of Congress Street looking east from Stone Avenue and from Main Avenue and one image of the Courthouse Plaza.

1 box, 1 linear ft.
