HISTORICAL NOTE: The Copper Queen Consolidated Mining Company was opened in 1880. On April 1, 1917 the Phelps Dodge Corporation assumed all assets and liabilities of Phelps, Dodge & Co., Inc. and continued the business of the former company with the same board of directors and official staff. Phelps, Dodge & Co., Inc. was the holding company for its subsidiary, Copper Queen Consolidated Mining Company. The properties in Bisbee and Douglas, Arizona are now known as the Copper Queen Branch of the Phelps Dodge Corporation.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: The collection consists of nine ledger mostly containing payroll records, with one ledger as a record of employee insurance payments.
