Roberts, Paul H.

Resume of Arizona Woolgrowers Association minutes, 1897-1923

DESCRIPTION

Typescript summary of minutes of the Arizona Wool Growers Association created by Paul Roberts while researching the history of the association. The minutes cover the period from 1897, when the organization first began keeping written minutes, to 1923, when the first permanent secretary was employed. Roberts has annotated the minutes with additional background information and provided a history of the Arizona Wool Growers Association. During this period, the Forest Service put controlled grazing into effect on the National Forests, and strong efforts were made to place grazing on the public domain lands under control.

1 box, .25 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Forest Service employee; Roberts arrived in Arizona in 1912 and worked as a member of a Forest Service Range Reconnaissance crew, later became Inspector of Grazing for the Southwestern Region of the Forest Service.
