MS 717
Scoble, Charles
Songbook, undated

DESCRIPTION

One leather-bound, handwritten volume labeled "Song Book" which contains poetry and songs. Some seem to have been written by Scoble, while others are merely transcribed. Of interest to Arizona researchers will be the longest poem in the book, entitled Arizona "composed by a California Volunteer." This poem describes the terrain, the people of Arizona and places visited. Unfortunately, nothing is dated and nothing is known about Scoble.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.
