

TITLE: W.H. Smith court record

DATE RANGE: 1885

CALL NUMBER: MS 0745

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: .25 linear ft. (1 box)

PROVENANCE: Unknown

COPYRIGHT: The Arizona Historical Society owns the copyright to this collection

RESTRICTIONS: This collection is unrestricted.

CREDIT LINE: W.H. Smith court record, MS 0745, Arizona Historical Society-Tucson

PROCESSED BY: William D. Tackenberg.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: The commercial firm of J.C. Fitzhenry & R.P. Mansfield operated a grocery store in Tombstone, Arizona in 1884 according to the Gazetteer & Business Directory of that year. No additional information has been located on this establishment, the owners, or W.H. Smith.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: Contains one folder with handwritten court transcript of the trial of W.H. Smith in 1885. The trial took place in Justice Court, Township 1, Cochise County, and involved a robbery of $127.50 from the Fitzhenry & Mansfield safe. The accused individual was an employee, W.H. Smith. Folder also includes two exhibits.