Scrapbooks
1949 - 1967

DESCRIPTION

This collection consists of two scrapbooks associated with the Tucson Title Insurance Company of Tucson Arizona. Scrapbooks entail clippings, brochures, cards, and some photographs reflecting company employees, banking and financial events, community events, and advertisements. Photographs and newspaper clippings highlight the building of a new building in 1949 and various new offices opened in Tucson and other southern Arizona communities. Other clippings depict Tucson events supported by the company and national issues involving financial and banking concerns.

1 Box, 2 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The Tucson Title Insurance Company was founded in May 1920. The company took over Tucson Realty & Trust Company. Through the years the firm moved to numerous city locations, opened additional branch offices in other locations of the city, and established offices in other southern Arizona towns. Its purpose was initially to provide insurance title for real estate and later provided trust and escrow services as well. In 1969 the company was changed to the Pioneer National Title Insurance Company.
