MS 913
United Moderns Ledger
1902 - 1904

DESCRIPTION

This small collection consists of one ledger containing minutes from the United Moderns local Tucson lodge from 1902 to 1904. The first entry documents the initial formation meeting of the lodge with the election of officers and membership listings. H. D. Corbett, a local Tucson merchant, was elected chancellor for the organization. On the inside front cover is a sheet detailing the procedures for formation of a new lodge of the order. Further entries document the meetings of the lodge and attendance of members.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The United Moderns were a fraternal organization with lodges in many communities across the country. The organization provided members with insurance and held regular meetings. From review of Tucson City Directories it appears this lodge did not last beyond the 1904 period. Little has been found on the objectives, purpose, or activities of the organization.
