MS 446
University of Arizona In World War I Manuscript
1917 - 1918

DESCRIPTION

This typed manuscript consists of a report prepared for the president of the University of Arizona R. B. Von KleinSmid in 1919. The report was prepared as part of the memorial service conducted at the University on March 2, 1919 to honor the thirteen men and women who were killed in the war against Germany. The report's author, Estelle Lutrell Librarian with the University, compiled a listing of 649 individuals engaged in military or civilian service during the war period who were associated with the University of Arizona. Her listings include name, residence, birth date, and service record and accomplishments for each individual.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.
