PROCESSED BY: Rebekah Tabah, July, 2016

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: This collection consists of orphaned or individually donated photo albums. These albums range in condition from poor to excellent. They represent various subject matter, photographic processes, and photographers from around Yuma, Arizona, California, and the greater southwest. Some albums were commercially printed while others are personal family endeavors, or community projects. All albums have been placed in preservation housings. Where possible original bindings were left intact. Due to condition some albums were disassembled, however original order was maintained. Albums are arranged individually with like-sized items stored together when possible. The albums are not arranged by subject or date range due to storage requirements of each album. Album titles in quotations are the titles given by the maker. All other titles are descriptive. All photographs are assumed to be gelatin silver prints unless otherwise noted. Each album has a short description of broad subjects covered within.
