

Lotería

Lotería is a card game in Mexico similar to Bingo. This game uses a deck of cards with brightly colored images.

You Need:

- A deck of 54 Lotería cards (included below)
- A Lotería board containing 16 images for each player
- Approximately 30 beans, for markers

Before Playing:

Step 1: Print out three sets of copies of the cards below.

Step 2: With one set, cut out all of the cards and stack like a deck. Put these aside.

Step 3: With the other two sets, cut out the cards and mix them up. Then each player makes his or her own Lotería board by gluing 16 different cards to a piece of cardboard (4 across x 4 up/down). It is okay for the same card to be on more than one board, so long no two boards are exactly alike.

*Note: * You can also draw your own images for the game board and make a card for the deck.*

Rule 1: One player is the dealer.

Rule 2: The dealer mixes up the stack of Lotería cards.

Rule 3: Once the stack is mixed, the dealer draws a card from the top of the stack.

Rule 4: He or she calls out the name of image on the card.

Rule 5: If a player has the image on the card on his or her board, then he or she marks it by placing a bean on that image.

Rule 6: The first player with four beans in a horizontal, vertical, or diagonal row, or completely fills his or her board and shouts “Lotería!” wins.
