BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Kirt L. Hart, an Arizona banker, cattleman and merchant, served as vice-president of the Southern Arizona Bank and Trust company and maintained extensive cattle holdings in the Baboquivari mountains. He came to Tombstone in 1885 from Wisconsin. He worked as a banker in Tombstone before getting into ranching and then in 1917 became a banker in Tucson. He was active in many organizations such as Knight's Templar, the Masons and the Elks. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, he organized a troop of sharpshooters as a national guard captain, but the outfit was not called for active service.
