PREFERRED CITATION: Arizona Historical Society, Alden Hayes papers, MS 1264

PROCESSED BY: The collection was processed by Dave Tackenberg in November 2005, updated by Richard Jones in 2016, and revised and updated again by Rachael Black in 2018.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Alden C. Hayes was a prominent southwest archaeologist. After receiving his bachelor's degree in anthropology from the University of New Mexico, Hayes worked as an archaeological technician in Texas and Tennessee. He later moved to Portal, Arizona where he worked as a rancher for sixteen years prior to returning to a career as an archaeologist with the National Park Service. He is the author of numerous monographs and shorter papers on his work at sites such as Mesa Verde, Gran Quivira, Pecos, and Chaco Canyon. Hayes retired to the Chiricahua Mountain region in 1976. He died in 1998.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: This collection contains papers, clippings, notes, interviews and photographs pertaining to the history of Portal, and Paradise, Arizona and the surrounding region. The material was collected by Hayes during the course of researching and writing his book A Portal to Paradise, which was published by the University of Arizona Press in 1999. Of particular interest are the files relating to people and families, which consist of a large number of oral history interviews and correspondence with long time residents of the region.

This collection is arranged in three series:

Series I: Research has been sorted into research concerning people and families, including Hayes' interviews and correspondence and research files on various subjects. Files are arranged alphabetically by title. One folder contains two oversized maps.

Series II: Photographs consists of copy prints and negatives of photographs loaned to Hayes for research and potential publication in his book. Correspondence regarding these images indicates that Hayes received non-exclusive rights for publication of select photos in his book only; accordingly, these images may not be reproduced. Folders are arranged alphabetically by name of the owner of the photographs.

Series III: Draft Manuscript consists of a longer, draft version of A Portal to Paradise.

SUBJECT TERMS: Portal, Arizona; Paradise, Arizona; Galeville, Arizona; Chiricahua Mountains; Cochise County, Arizona

RELATED MATERIALS: A collection of Hayes' professional papers is housed at the Center of Southwest Studies at Fort Lewis College in Durango, Colorado.
