MS 1379
Indian Claims Commission Papers
1972

DESCRIPTION

This collection consists of copies of historical documents entered as exhibits before the Indian Claims Commission in 1972. Materials come primarily from record groups of the National Archives in Washington D.C. and reflect Apache interactions and geographical locations occupied in New Mexico/Arizona Territories. Of special note is the report compiled by Albert H. Schroeder and titled “A Study of the Apache Indians.” The report prepared by Schroeder for the Commission and the copies of supporting documents were likely collected by the author and used in the manuscript.

2 Box, 1 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

In 1972 the Indian Claims Commission rendered a settlement between the United States Government and the San Carlos Apache Tribe, the White Mountain Apache Tribe, and the Yavapai-Apache Indian Community of Fort McDowell. The settlement entailed the title transfer of two tracts of land outside the White Mountain Apache Reservation for compensation of $4,900,000.00 and $685,000.00. The agreement was later ratified by the respective tribal leaders and by reservation Native-Americans.
