BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

John Ivancovich was born in 1865 in the small Austrian village of Bersecine on the Adriatic coast. This area would later become part of the country of Yugoslavia. He came to New York in 1882 and arrived in Arizona finding worked in Tombstone, AZ and later at the Ada Mine near Oracle, AZ. He located in Tucson in 1884 and found employment in the store of Baldo Saich. Two years later he opened his own fruit store on Congress Street. As years past Ivancovich expanded his business to retail and grocery wholesale interests. By 1930 he sold his grocery interests and became involved with real estate in the downtown areas of Tucson.
Ivancovich became a U.S. citizen in 1890. He developed the Congress Street properties and worked with other merchants to build the first commercial light plant for the city. He was an honorary member of the Knights of Columbus and a charter member of the Tucson Council. He was also a member of the local Elks Lodge and the Old Pueblo Club. Ivancovich maintained correspondence with a large extended family with a brother Miho living in Yugoslavia, nephews living in South America, and other family and friends in Europe. He died in 1944 at the age of 79.

In 1897 John Ivancovich married Hertha Tromm originally from Wisconsin but a resident of Tucson since 1889. Miss Tromm operated a small studio in Tucson after studying music both in the United States and the Sterns Conservatory in Berlin Germany. Mrs. Ivancovich was active in community affairs and a charter member of the Saturday Morning Musical Club. She performed public concerts in the community and was director of music at Grace Episcopal church. She died in 1963 at the age of 86. The Ivancovichs had three sons John, Byron, and George.

John Ivancovich Jr. oldest son of John and Hertha Ivancovich was born in Tucson in 1898 and attended local schools in the area. Later he was a student at the University of Arizona and the Catholic University in Washington D.C. During the First World War he served as an officer in the Army and worked in real estate in the Tucson area. He was killed in 1933. After a coroner’s inquest it was ruled he was killed by a gunshot wound to the head by person or persons unknown. No one was ever charged with the death.

George Ivancovich was the youngest son attending local schools including the University of Arizona and then moved to San Francisco where he became involved in real estate. During World War II he served in the Marine Corps and after the war started work in an auto business in Santa Barbara. George was killed in an automobile accident in 1960 near Carlsbad, California.

Byron Ivancovich was born in Tucson in 1900. He attended the University of Arizona and then the Wharton College of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania. After returning to the Tucson area he obtained a law degree from the University of Arizona in 1937. After completion of schooling Byron worked with his father managing the family real estate holdings in Tucson. Byron married Jane Harrison in 1937. Together they participated in many community and social activities. Both were involved with the Arizona Historical Society serving on the board of directors. San Xavier del Bac and other missions of the southwest also interested Byron and Jane and they visited many historical locations. Jane Ivancovich maintained a passionate interest in Father Eusebio Francisco Kino and she and Byron were instrumental in the selection of the artist to do the statue of Kino that stands in the U.S. Capital. A copy also stands outside the Arizona Historical Society building in Tucson. Jane Ivancovich and Byron were divorced prior to Byron’s death in 1984.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Ivancovich Family Collection consists of correspondence, business papers, photographs, ledgers and scrapbooks associated with two generations of family members. The collection is especially strong with reference to personal and family correspondence between 1895 and 1984. During the early portion of this period Hertha Ivancovich traveled and maintained contact with family members through written letters describing her locations, activities, and impressions. The business materials focus on the concerns of John Ivancovich featuring his grocery wholesale, hardware, and real estate in Tucson. Byron Ivancovich worked with his father and later took over the real estate operations after his father’s death in 1944. Photographs depict family members, family travel vacations to Europe, and other southwestern locations & subjects. A large grouping of images features San Xavier del Bac which both Jane and Byron Ivancovich had a long time interest in. The collection has been organized into six series.

Series 1 consists of materials related to Ivancovich family members, history, and activities including a manuscript prepared by John Ivancovich on his life and activities in folder 2 and 3. Additional folders provide information on Hertha, John Jr., Byron, George, and Jane Ivancovich (Byron’s wife). Personal items include school grade reports, newspaper clippings, wills, and passports. An especially large collection of materials relate to the Saturday Morning Music Club including by-laws, minutes, and activities and is included in folders 46-50. Byron Ivancovich’s schooling activities featuring classroom work, events and graduation announcements from the University of Pennsylvania (1919-1921), University of Arizona, and the Law School of the University of Arizona in 1937. This series also includes materials related to family travel with John and Hertha visiting Europe in 1902, 1910, 1916, and 1937. Passports, letters of introduction, travel plans, ship postcards, travel brochures, and Hertha’s correspondence with Byron relating events of their trip are included. Byron’s travel materials include trips to Washington D.C., Virginia, New England, Europe and numerous trips to Mexico between 1934 and 1983.

Series 2 contains personal and family correspondence between the years 1895 and 1984. This material provides the heart of the collection and of special interest to researchers. The Ivancovich’s were a wealthy family and could afford to travel. Their communications to other family members provide interesting observations and impressions as they journeyed to Europe and other parts of the United State. Hertha Ivancovich’s letters are especially interesting as she traveled to many resort and health club locations in the United States seeking treatment for personal illnesses. Byron Ivancovich’s letters provide communications to his parents on impressions of schooling at the University of Pennsylvania in the early 1920s and travels to New England, Virginia, and eastern coast areas. In addition there are many letters from relatives in Yugoslavia and South America testifying to the extensive communication maintained by this extended family. Unfortunately most of these letters are not in English.

Series 3 comprises the business records for the many and diverse efforts of John Ivancovich and later Byron Ivancovich between 1899 and 1984. In an effort to assist the researcher the series has been further subdivided into subseries reflecting:

- Business Correspondence
- John Ivancovich’s Grocery and Rental Property Records
- Hertha Ivancovich’s Business Records
- Byron Ivancovich’s Business Correspondence
- Byron’s Business Invoices and Receipts
- Byron’s Business and Legal Education
- Property Documents
- Investment Publications and Tucson Planning and Zoning Information
- Legal Proceedings Involving Ivancovich Property
- Insurance Policies and Companies
- John and Byron Ivancovich’s Investment Papers
- Ivancovich Banking Accounts
- Tax Documents
- Grocery Account Ledgers and Personal Expense Listings
The materials collected here provide an overview of the many business interests of the Ivancovichs including grocery wholesale, property rental, auto garage operations, and the Ivancovich's hardware department.

Series 4 materials represent documents, notes, appraisals, and trust statements associated with the John and Hertha estate settlement. A forty year period of legal litigation followed the death of John Ivancovich as to who should have how much of the Ivancovich property. Principle participants featured initially Byron, his mother Hertha, and nephews Neal and Terry Ivan (name changed from Ivancovich). Neal and Terry were the children of George and his wife. Court documents and lawyer notes indicate that the major question under dispute was the exact valuation of the estate at the time of John Ivancovich's death in 1944. Since the will provided specific percentages for the distribution Neal and Terry felt that the total valuation was too low.

Series 5 is a collection of historical papers, notes, manuscripts, certificates, pamphlets, etc related to southwestern subjects. These wide assortment of items relate to Byron and Jane Ivancovich’s interest in area history and mission history in particular. Some of the more noteworthy subjects include papers by Prof. Henry F. Dobyns on southwestern Native American groups and Spanish settlement locations, Byron Ivancovich’s paper on Juan Bautista De Anza (presented to the Arizona Pioneer Society Convention in 1960), and James Officer’s manuscript on Urban Mexican-Americans. Other topics with brochures, pamphlets, and notices feature Tucson, Arizona, and southwestern subjects. Of special note to researchers are the folders from 1674 to 1747 featuring materials on Father Eusebio Kino, San Xavier del Bac, and Spanish mission related items. These materials reflect both Byron and Jane’s interest in Spanish mission history and specifically Father Kino and the mission at Tucson. An additional section within this series pertains to correspondence, membership certificates, meeting notes and the 1897 constitution of the Arizona Historical Society. Byron and Jane not only were members of the Society but also served on the board of directors. Ninety-one folders contain checks, invoices and correspondence associated with the L.M. Jacobs Company of Tucson from 1868 to 1895. The Jacobs Company was a mercantile and banking operation with connections in many of the Arizona southern communities during this period. No documentation in the collection has been located to indicate that John Ivancovich worked for any of the Jacobs branches. It would appear that either John or Byron simply collected these historical materials. The last section of this series features miscellaneous subjects and activities including various concert programs, manuscripts on mining, travel pamphlets from southwest locations, Tucson clubs and organizations, Slav-American newspapers, and a wide assortment of other topics.

The last series houses the scrapbooks, postcards, and photographs associated with the Ivancovich family. Hertha collected two scrapbooks featuring local social events, people, and clippings (1910-1950) and one scrapbook with clippings from area newspapers during the Second World War (1941-1944). Photographs are especially important as many of the portraits are done by local photographer Al Buehman of Tucson and include formal portraits of John and Hertha Ivancovich as well as their sons John, Byron, and George. In addition the Ivancovichs acquired many other professional portraits of friends from Tucson and outside the city. Unfortunately many of the images have no identification. Of special notice are the images taken or purchased by John and Hertha on their four trips to Europe in the early 20th century. Photographs depict Rome, France, Germany, England and John’s hometown village in Yugoslavia where they returned in 1910. Other travel photographs highlight trips to California including Yosemite Valley, San Francisco, and Crater Lake in Oregon. Byron and Jane Ivancovich traveled to New England, South America, Singapore, as well as areas in California, New Mexico, and Mexico in their visits to Spanish historical sites.

Other images depict Tucson street scenes, buildings, Ivancovich rental properties, and construction activities on Congress Street in the 1950s. In 1957 John Ivancovich's old store building was demolished to make room for a new Woolworth store. Photographs show the destruction of Solomon Warner's old store in Tucson in 1951 and the old L. M. Jacob's home in 1954. A series of sixteen folders show the mission and restoration work at San Xavier del Bac between 1928 and 1958. Four folders containing 24 professional photographs depict Hopi villages and Snake Dances by Almer Coe & Company of Chicago.

Postcards reflect the many locations that friends and relatives traveled to and sent cards to the Ivancovichs. Other cards were simply purchased and brought home by the family. Arizona cards include an assortment of subjects from Tucson including street scenes, Elks Club building, Santa Rita Hotel, and San Xavier Mission. Other cards from Arizona locations depict Colorado River bridge, Grand Canyon, Brophy College in Phoenix, Glen Canyon Dam construction, Superior highway near Globe, AZ, Monument Valley, and Tumacacori Mission ruins. Other locations outside Arizona feature cards from Wisconsin, New Hampshire, New York, Michigan, Massachusetts, California, Maine, Colorado, and small numbers from many other state locations. Foreign cards include locations in Italy, Germany, Canada, and Mexico.

Ivancovich photo albums include photos mounted on file folder material and commercial albums. Most of the file folder mounted photos depict trips by Byron Ivancovich to Mexican locations with Spanish or mission history subjects. Of special note to Byron was Spanish and Mexican architecture and numerous albums center on images of buildings and street scenes. Albums #2, 3, 4, 18, 19, 21, 22 depict Ivancovich family members. Albums 24 and 25 contain images of European scenes on trips by John and Hertha in 1910. Three post card albums in boxes 190, 191, 193 and 194 highlight many cards from 1910 period.

Outsized or Large MISC items include Hertha’s recipe card box (#194) and two boxes of file cards with business companies associated with John Ivancovich's grocery business. Large oversized drawings, maps, portraits, and pamphlets are contained in Box #197. Seventeen oversized ledgers from business associated with John and Byron Ivancovich have been wrapped and labeled, and reflect periods from 1899 to 1978 with grocery sales, personal accounts, product purchases, inventory listings, and property rental listings.
