

TITLE: David Laughlin Collection

DATE RANGE: 1981-1996

CALL NUMBER: MS 1481

PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION: 1 oversize folder

PROVENANCE: Donated by David W. Laughlin, 2011

COPYRIGHT: The artist retains the rights to this collection. It is incumbent upon the researcher to determine the copyright for any material in this collection.

RESTRICTIONS: This collection is for research only – no reproductions are allowed.

CREDIT LINE: David Laughlin Collection, MS 1481, Arizona Historical Society-Tucson

PROCESSED BY: Meghan Morris and Laura Hoff, April 2014

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: David Laughlin is a Tucson painter and sculptor who based much of his work on the history of the Buffalo Soldiers of the 10th Regiment.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: Includes 24 oversized linoleum block prints. The prints depict different scenes of Buffalo Soldiers throughout each hour in a 24 hour period. The series is titled A Suite of Military Hours. Prints are arranged chronologically by title, from “0100 hours” to “2400 hours”.

CONTAINER LIST:

Box	Folder	Title	Dates
1	1	Linoleum block prints: A Suite of Military Hours , 0100 Hours – 2400 Hours (oversized)	1981-1996