Family and Friends of Josefina and Alejandro Daniel 1910 - 1928

DESCRIPTION

This small collection consists of images depicting Hispanic children and adults from Tucson Arizona from 1910 to 1917. Images depict family and acquaintances of Josefina and Alejandro Daniel of Tucson. There are three folders in the collection with the first containing images of adult men and women. Many of these images are formal portraits and were likely taken in a studio setting. Folder two consists of three formal portraits of adult men and women taken by professional photographers. Two images are of wedding scenes and the remaining image is of a family identified on the back with the date of December 24, 1928. The final folder houses images of Hispanic children, many of which again are formal portrait images. Approximately half of the images in the collection contain information in Spanish on the backs along with dates.

1 Box, .25 linear ft.
