BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: Lucille Vernaz was born in Missouri around 1890 (sources disagree, from 1888 to 1892) to Adam and Frances Vernaz. She was the second of three daughters, Juanita Vernaz, the oldest and Mercedes Vernaz, the youngest. While in Missouri she was a member of the Missouri Pharmaceutical Association. By 1921 Lucille was married to attorney Joseph Holub and living in Phoenix, Arizona and involved in the Woman's Club of Phoenix. Some sources say Lucille had a child with Joseph, possibly the Patricia Holub that appears in this collection, however this is still unconfirmed. After the death of Joseph in 1941, Lucille married widower Dr. Charles W. Sult, for whom she worked.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE:

The collection contains approximately 275 photos, mostly unidentified. Original order is unknown. Through genealogical research on the family and facial comparison and identification, the photographs were organized, as best as possible, by individual. The majority of photos are of the Vernaz and Holub families and friends, with a few of Charles Sult and his children. The photos are black and white and in fair condition, though some have faded.

The photographs are organized into seven series: Series I: Family; Series II: Friends; Series III: Groups; Series IV: Houses; Series V: Landscapes and Series VI: Notre Dame Football Team and VII: Trips.
