Mary Hughston Photographs
1916

DESCRIPTION

This collection consists of five folders of photographs and one small photo album dealing with images of Mary Hughston. The photo album was heavily damaged and has been separated into separate pages. Images depict desert scenery, exterior view of Consolidated National Bank, Nogales street scenes, and images of people. Most images are not labeled. Photographs in folders show Mary Hughston with friends, horseback riding, her dogs, and various buildings.

1 Box, .5 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Caroline Mary Hughston was born in 1881 in Pennsylvania. She came to Tucson in 1903 and started teaching school at Amphitheater School. Later she worked with Consolidated National Bank and Steinfeld Department Store. In 1940 she opened her own business selling specialty items for women. Throughout her life she wrote many articles and papers dealing with aspects of Arizona and Tucson. She died August 24, 1970.
