

---

ARIZONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

949 East Second Street
Tucson, AZ 85719

Library and Archives
(520) 617-1157 Fax: (520) 628-5695 azhist@azstarnet.com

---

PC 0088
Morris, Earl
Photographic Portfolio, ca. 1920s

DESCRIPTION

Portfolio of twenty 11 x 14" photographs by archaeologist, Earl H. Morris, originally taken to document his field research projects in the 1920s. Images include excavation work in Chaco Canyon, Canyon de Chelly, Canyon del Muerto, and sites near Durango, Colorado. There is also an image of Navajo workmen in Canyon del Muerto in 1924 dancing around the camp fire during a curing ceremony.

1 box, .75 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Archaeologist, writer and teacher; Earl H. Morris studied prehistoric peoples in the Southwest, Mexico, and Guatemala.

ACQUISITION

Purchased in 1985.

ACCESS

There are no restrictions on access to this collection.

COPYRIGHT

Photographs may not be reproduced without the permission of the University of Colorado Museum.

PROCESSING

The collection was processed by Kim Frontz, 1998.