PC 117
Searle, Ina
Bisbee railroad photographs, ca. 1885-1895

DESCRIPTION

Small collection of photographs of birds-eye-views of Bisbee, the roundhouse and railroad yard, the building of the Copper Queen Consolidated Mining Company Library, and interior and exterior views of the Copper Queen smelter, circa 1890. There are also images of trains of the Arizona and Southeastern Railroad along the San Pedro River, a train accident of the Sonora railroad, and two 1887 views of Nogales, Arizona. There is one copy print of an unusual view of Tucson's downtown area taken from the southwest. Photographers A. M. Feldman, Willis P. Haynes, and Buehman & Hartwell took a few of the images.

1 box, .25 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Ina Searle was the widow of railroad employee, I. M. Searle.

RELATED MATERIAL

An additional set of copy prints was given to the Bisbee Museum at the donor's request.

ACQUISITION
