CREDIT LINE: Subject Photograph Collection, FP FPC #100, Arizona Historical Society-Papago Park

PROCESSED BY: Rebekah Tabah, December 2007

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: Contains approximately 20,000 photographs in fair to good condition. The collection represents an aggregation of images from multiple and diverse sources. Most of these derive from previously un-catalogued, unprocessed, or poorly described materials. The majority are identified and captioned. Geographic areas include Arizona, California, Texas, New Mexico, and Mexico. This is an active collection where future additions are anticipated. Collection highlights include late 19th century mining towns and housing developments in Phoenix from the 1960s.

The collection is organized by broad subject categories: Animals, Artifacts, Biography, Buildings, Canals, Dams, and Irrigation, Cemeteries and Graveyards, Churches, Missions, and Temples, Farming and Agriculture, Geology, Housing, Indians, Law Enforcement, Landscapes, Military, Mining, Natural Disasters, Organizations, People, Places, Plants, Parades and Rodeos, Schools and Universities, Sports, Transportation, and Utilities. The broad subjects are broken into more narrow subjects under each heading and arranged alphabetically and then by date.
