PC 157 (RARE)
Woods, Gladys
Woods-Lutley family photographs, ca. 1885-1895

DESCRIPTION

Plush album of studio portraits, on cabinet cards, mostly head and shoulders views, of unidentified children, and individual men and women of the Woods and Lutley families, mostly between 1885 and 1895. Photographers responsible for the portraits include Erwin Baer, C. S. Fly, and E. M. Jennings. The album is inscribed to Alice from Henry and Etta; which suggests it was begun after Henry and Etta's marriage in 1886.

1 box, 2 linear ft.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Alice Ferno Woods married William Lutley on February 14, 1890 in Tombstone. William Lutley came to Tucson in 1881, engaged in hauling lumber and freighting and was a partner in the Swisshelm Cattle Company. Three brothers, Henry, Arthur and Fred joined him in Arizona. Alice's brother Henry Morgan Woods was in the lumber business in the Chiricahua Mountains, was foreman of the Contention Mine until 1892, then moved to Bisbee as a carpenter for the Copper Queen Mining Company. He married Letta May Steele in 1886 and they had five children.
