BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Charles Albert Stauffer (CAS), prominent Phoenix newspaper publisher, was born in Sedgewick, Kansas on March 23, 1880. He was one of twelve children of John Wesley Stauffer (1846-1923) and Mary Jane Richardson Stauffer (1846-1912). On February, 6, 1892, the family moved to Glendale, Arizona, where CAS attended elementary school. In 1897, he enrolled at the Territorial Normal School in Tempe (now Arizona State University). To finance his education, CAS worked as a newspaper carrier for the Phoenix Evening Herald. When the Herald was sold to the Arizona Republican in 1899, CAS became the Tempe news reporter.

Stauffer graduated from Tempe Normal School in 1901. On October 13, 1901, he was named circulation manager for the Republican in Phoenix. In 1909, CAS left the newspaper to enter real estate. He worked for Valley Realty Company for one year and then joined the real estate firm of E.J. Bennitt & Company.

From 1909 to 1911, CAS served on the Phoenix City Commission. This was his sole venture into politics. As a City Commissioner, he was instrumental in approving the first paved roadway in Phoenix, a three-block stretch of Washington Street.

On January 7, 1912, Stauffer returned to the Arizona Republican and was named business manager. He started to acquire stock in the newspaper in 1913. On January 19, 1915, he rose to the position of director and secretary of the newspaper organization, and on April 1, 1920, he became general manager of the Republican.

Following the death of Republican publisher Dwight B. Heard, CAS was appointed president and publisher of the paper on May 1, 1929. With Mrs. Heard, CAS shared control in the Arizona Publishing Company, owner and operator of the Republican, the Arizona Weekly Gazette, KTAR Broadcasting Company in Phoenix, KVOA Radio in Tucson, and radio stations in Yuma, Prescott, and Flagstaff.

Charles and his brother-in-law, Walter Wesley Knorpp (1891-1975) purchased the Phoenix Gazette from N.L. Naylor and Macro Morrow in November, 1930. That same month, the Republican shortened its name to the Republic to reflect its independent political orientation.

In 1934, Mrs. Heard retired and Stauffer assumed the position of Chairman of the Board of the Arizona Publishing Company.

In December 1937, W.W. Knorpp became president of the Arizona Publishing Company and publisher of the Gazette. Charles remained Chairman of the Board for the Company and Publisher of the Arizona Republic.

In August 1944, the Arizona Publishing Company sold the KTAR interests to John J. Louis, a Chicago businessman. Eugene C. Pulliam purchased all remaining interests of the Arizona Publishing Company, including the Gazette and the Republic, in October, 1946. Stauffer retired in 1946 to engage in citrus growing and property investments.

He continued to maintain interests in many business and community activities. He was a staunch supporter of Arizona State University and was president of the Alumni Association there. In the 1950s, he served as chairman of the college's fundraising committee for a new student union building. He was the first person in the history of the school to receive an honorary doctor of laws degree. In 1951, the school's new communications building was named after him.

Stauffer was also active in the Boy Scouts of America. He was one of the first presidents of the Theodore Roosevelt Council. In 1937, he was presented with the Silver Beaver award for his service on the executive committee of the Boy Scouts.

On April 29, 1963, CAS was named Man of the Year at a testimonial dinner sponsored by the Phoenix chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Charles was a member of the Volunteer Firemen's Association (1901-1913), a director of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce, president of the Phoenix Rotary Club in 1927 and 1928, director of the Arizona Citrus Growers Association, president of the Arizona Associated Press, director of the Arizona Daily Newspapers Association, and a long-time member of the Arizona National Guard. He held memberships on the Phoenix Civic Center Management Board, the Heard Museum Board of Directors, the Arizona Pioneers Historical Society, the Phoenix Country Club, the Knights of Pythias, the Loyal Order of Moose, the Hiram Club and several Masonic bodies. He carried card number one in the Arizona Club, a group of professional men and city leaders in Phoenix.

Charles married Edith Louise Bennett (1885-1985), daughter of Arizona lawyer Walter Bennett, on April 10, 1909. They had four children: Dorothy (Mrs. Charles Cuthbert Fahlen), born in 1911; Eleanor (Mrs. Guy R. Neely), born in 1916; Sylvia (Mrs. Larry Laughlin), born in 1919; and Charles Bennett Stauffer, born in 1923.

Charles A. Stauffer died on December 27, 1970 in Phoenix at the age of 90.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The papers relate primarily to Stauffer's business and civic interests in Phoenix, Arizona, from 1900-1970. The bulk of the collection documents Stauffer's involvement in the newspaper conglomerate of the Arizona Publishing Company and in the field of real estate. The materials also document his active participation in several of Phoenix's leading civic organizations, boards, and committees, including Arizona State University, the Heard Museum, and the Phoenix Civic Center Management Board. Lacking in the collection are documents relation to Stauffer's position on the Phoenix City Commission. Notable correspondence represented in the collection includes: Republic publishers Eugene C. Pulliam and Dwight B. Heard; United States Presidents Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Harry S. Truman; Arizona Governor Sidney Osborn and politicians Carl Hayden, John Rhodes and Barry Goldwater.

Series 1: Biography and Family Genealogy, 1890-1970. This series contains approximately 194 items treating the life of Charles Albert Stauffer as well as his family's history. These items also contain other biographical and genealogical information, including correspondence with both nuclear and extended family members as well as legal documents.

Series 2: Personal Papers, 1906-1970. This series contains approximately 225 documents covering a wide variety of subjects. As arranged, the subjects deal mainly with Stauffer's involvement in World War II bond sales, salvage and scrap drives, and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. His direction of the Citizens Military Training Camp, his communications with Carl Hayden and presidents Hoover, Roosevelt, and Truman are also included. Other items include a legal description of various real estate lots in Maricopa county, memorabilia from functions and dinners, documents relating to cemetery arrangements, and a variety of membership and business cards.

Series 3: General Correspondence, 1903-1970. This series contains approximately 182 letters covering a wide range of subjects such as the Stauffer family, CAS' work at the Arizona Republic, his election, the Arizona Board of Industry Congress, and the Phoenix Indian School, to name a few. Significant among these include letters of thanks from Barry Goldwater for support and campaign contributions.

Series 4: Speeches, 1917-1962. This series contains approximately 94 items, all of which are speeches made to different audiences on a wide variety of subjects, including various aspects of the newspaper profession and business world, the importance of the war effort (World War II), traits for living, the future of Phoenix and Arizona, the Pioneers Reunions, his early days in Arizona, and the nature of success.

Series 5: Stelzriede Correspondence, 1915-1955. This series contains approximately 227 items concerned with Stauffer's guardianship of Ashley Stelzriede (a.k.a. Jack Layton) and the disposition of his property. The correspondence includes the judge involved in the case, some of Ashley's family members, some of Ashley's wives, the principal at the state reform school in Fort Grant, and Ashley's superior officer in the army.

Series 6: Insurance Receipts, 1906-1970. This series contains approximately 325 items and consists of both correspondence and receipts. The correspondence with insurance companies deals primarily with discounts for advance premium payments, clarification of problems with policies, and an auto accident. The receipts are for premiums paid to various insurance companies whose names can be found in the container list. Correspondence with the Ontario Cemetery Association of Ontario, California discusses cemetery plots and the burial of Lucille Engle. Also included is information about clubs of which CAS was a member.

Series 7: Arizona Republic, 1905-1944. This series contains approximately 58 items. A large portion of the documents deals with the mechanics and operation of the newspaper, including both union and KKK correspondence. Other documents deal with employee conduct and salaries. Also covered are CAS' purchase of Republic stock and the passage of the majority of the stock to W.W. Knorpp, the Pioneers Reunions, and CAS' candidacy for a directorship of the Associated Press.

Series 8: Phoenix Gazette Purchase, 1925-1930. This series contains approximately 53 items including correspondence, newspaper clippings, and printed matter. The subject of the correspondence and clippings is the planned sale of the Gazette and its purchase by the Arizona Publishing Company. Notable correspondents include Charles Scripps and Mrs. D.B. Heard. Much of the printed matter deals with the financial information that was essential to the purchase.

Series 9: Arizona Publishing Company Sale, 1946. This series contains approximately 26 items. The majority consists of copies of legal documents involved in the sale. Correspondence includes letters from Eugene C. Pulliam and also included are newspaper and magazine clippings detailing the sale.

Series 10: KTAR Radio Station, 1929-1944. This series contains 7 items concerning the purchase of KTAR radio station in 1929 and its sale in 1944. The correspondence and reports deal with the radio station's purchase by the Arizona Publishing Company, and the newspaper clippings tell of its sale.

Series 11: Dwight B. Heard Correspondence, 1913-1964. This series contains approximately 231 items. The subjects covered include city bonds, state and national politics, Heard's political activities, the Colorado River Association and the Colorado River Irrigation project, Heard's travels in Europe, and management of the Republican. Also included are the letters of condolence and CAS' replies at the time of Heard's death.

Series 12: Phoenix Rotary Club, 1926-1964. This series contains approximately 80 items. The speeches tell about Rotary's goals and ideas. The correspondence deals with the formation and running of the Rotary Club and its various committees, some of which CAS headed. The booklets and pamphlets outline the goals and objectives of Rotary and the newsletters describe important events in the history of the club. The newspaper clippings deal primarily with CAS' Rotary activities.

Series 13: Arizona Natural History Museum, 1936-1952. This series contains approximately 178 items, mostly correspondence to and from Major F.R. Burnham and his wife Ilo, A. Kingsley Macomber, Sidney Osborn, George Miller, Governor Garvey, and various museum directors. The booklets, financial data and newspaper clippings relate to the proposed museum. The series also includes inventories of the Burnham and Macomber animal trophy collections, the original donations to the museum effort.

Series 14: Boy Scouts of America, 1921-1969. This series contains approximately 76 items covering CAS' appointment to several committees, his contributions to scouting and the growth and financial status of the Roosevelt Council, the organization of region 12, the 1951 Jamboree, the Silver Beaver Award and the Van Arnim Bequest.

Series 15: Tempe Normal School/Arizona State University Alumni Association, 1901-1967. This series contains approximately 156 items dealing with the 50th anniversary of the class of 1901, CAS' grades, a letter of recommendation, the building of the Memorial Union, the ASU Foundation, and Delta Chi Fraternity.

Series 16: Phoenix Civic Center, 1940-1954. This series contains approximately 72 items dealing with CAS' appointment to the Civic Center Management Board, the board's activities, the history of the Civic Center and the costs involved in building both it and the Public Library.

Series 17: Mexican Travels, 1929-1942. This series contains approximately 39 items. The main subjects covered include the inaugurations of Governor Luis Encinas of Sonora in 1929 and President Ortiz Rubio in 1930 as well as the promotion of tourism to Mexico and the inaugural flight of American Airlines to Mexico City.

Series 18: Real Estate and Other Investments, 1905-1970. This series contains approximately 2,103 items. The subjects covered include payment of taxes, personal loans, real estate business transactions (sales and purchases), depreciation of CAS' properties, rents collected, personal inventories of possessions, and a magazine write-up of the Stauffer home at 7306 N. Central Avenue.

Series 19: Citrus Growing and Production, 1933-1963. This series contains approximately 673 items concerning the sale of parts of CAS' citrus groves, the Industrial Commission of Arizona, agriculture payroll taxes, the purchase of additional property called Arcadia (see maps 1997.223.37 and 1997.223.36) the sale of farm equipment, federal taxes, state taxes, payments to workers, the Arizona Citrus Growers Association and the layout of CAS' groves.

Series 20: Arcadia Water Company, 1939-1960. This series has approximately 42 items dealing with the formation, financial status, and day-to-day operations of the company.

Series 21: Property and Investments, 1871-1968. This series includes approximately 392 items, 389 of which are ledger sheets. The sheets and ledger books contain personal records of CAS' investments as well as information on salaries, loans, memos, stocks, bonds, and life insurance. The property records of block 77, Phoenix from 1871-1935 are also included.

Series 22: Awards, 1909-1967. This series contains approximately 123 items and includes the certificates and awards CAS received throughout his lifetime. Also included are newspaper clippings and letters of congratulation from Senators Carl Hayden and Barry Goldwater and Representative John Rhodes, among others, on Stauffer's receipt of the Man of the Year award from the Phoenix chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in 1963.

Series 23: Bank Statements, 1963-1970. This series contains the last seven years of Stauffer's bank statements, showing his financial status in the latter portion of his life. The main subjects covered are Stauffer's outgoing payments and account balances.

Series 24: Cancelled Checks, 1905-1969. This series includes the cancelled checks that CAS wrote for personal loans as well as for bill payments. The main subjects covered are the number and amounts of loans Stauffer made, as well as how his spending habits changed from year to year.

Series 25: Photographs, 1894-1970. This series contains photographs on the following subjects: an African Big Game Exhibit, Agua Caliente, American Airlines' Inaugural Flight, Arizona Pioneers Reunions, the Arizona Republican, Arizona State College, Stauffer's friends, Glendale, Group Pictures, Guaymas, Kaibab, Mexico, Middle East Unidentified, Phoenix, Phoenix Rotary Club, Portraits, Railroads, the Republic and Gazette Pin Parties during World War II, Roosevelt Dam, the Stauffer family, Tempe, Miscellaneous photos, and Unidentified photos. The photographs show CAS' physical appearance as well as his friends, his family and the places where he spent his time.

PROVENANCE

In 1971, Larry and Sylvia Laughlin donated the Charles A. Stauffer Papers to the Arizona Historical Society's Southern Arizona Division (SAD) in Tucson. On May 4, 1993, the Central Arizona Division received the Charles A. Stauffer Papers as a transfer from the SAD. An additional transfer, consisting of 104 negatives and 63 photographs, was received on April 11, 1997.

RESTRICTIONS

None

LITERARY RIGHTS

Permission to publish material from the Charles A. Stauffer Papers, 1871-1970 must be obtained from the Library and Archives Department at the Central Arizona Division of the Arizona Historical Society.

NOTES TO RESEARCHERS

In order to stabilize the materials and preserve the information contained in this collection, newspaper clippings and items on deteriorating acidic paper were photocopied onto acid-neutral paper and the originals were recycled. Also, staples were removed and replaced with paper clips to preserve the documents' context. These paper-clipped documents are now protected by strips of acid-neutral paper. Photographs and negatives were placed in acid-neutral sleeves. Maps too large for the document boxes were numbered, measured and encapsulated in mylar and onto acid-neutral board.

The Charles A. Stauffer Papers, 1871-1970 were arranged by personnel at the Southern Arizona Division of the Arizona Historical Society. Unsure of whether or not the order was Stauffer's or SAD's, the processor here at the Central Arizona Division left the papers' order alone and was responsible only for the preservation and description of the collection.

For more information about Charles Stauffer, see also collection 1991.11. Collection 1985.166 contains three photographs of Stauffer and collection 1985.176 contains one.
