Tucson Musical Arts Club (Ariz.) Scrapbooks
1971 – 1973/1975 - 1980

DESCRIPTION

This collection consists of seven scrapbooks from the Tucson Musical Arts Club covering activities of the organization from 1971 to 1973 and 1975 to 1980. Scrapbooks contain photos of club members and officers, meeting agendas, state and national convention programs, and award certificates presented to the club. In addition, club yearbooks depict officers and members of the club, newspaper clippings, and some correspondence is present highlighting upcoming club conventions and programs. The 1972 – 1973 scrapbook has a one-page history of the organization since it's founding.

5 Boxes, 5.25 linear ft.

HISTORICAL NOTE

Mrs. Ruth R. Corlies and a small group of charter members founded the Tucson Musical Arts Club in September 1953. The organization became affiliated with the National Federation of Music Clubs in November 1953. The club's purpose has been to provide small scholarships for students with studies directed toward musical careers. Over the years the club members have sponsored many scholarships and appeared at many locations entertaining and raising money to continue its work in the community.
