HISTORICAL NOTE

The Tucson Woman's Home Council of Missions was organized as a Federation of Protestant Evangelical Churches in 1912. Churches which were original members included The Methodist, Grace Episcopal, Congregational, Presbyterian, Baptist, First Christian, Lutheran and Seventh Day Adventist. Mrs. B. F. Daniels was the first chairman. All of the churches had mission work to support and joined together to help support their charity work including the Tucson Indian School, St. Luke's in the Desert and the Chinese Mission. Their work included Traveler's Aid, the Y.W.C.A., the Comstock Hospital and various schools.
