HISTORICAL NOTE

The Tucson Woman's Home Council of Missions was organized in 1912 with the mission of "the spiritual uplift of the community by investigation and alleviation of social conditions, the general advancement of the Kingdom of God by the study of missions and missionary works and the promotion of Christian fellowship." It was affiliated with the national organization, "The United Council of Church Women." The officers of the organization represented various churches in Tucson.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Includes newspapers clippings, programs, minutes and names of members of the Tucson organization, Tucson Woman's Home Council of Missions and the Arizona Council of Church Women. It appears from the treasurer's book that membership to the organization was made by individual churches, rather than individual women. The collection shows the activities of the organization and the social concerns for the church women.
