MS 1255Charles & Lucile Herbert - Western Ways Features
Manuscript and Photograph Collection, ca. 1930-1970 (bulk 1940-1960)*DESCRIPTION

Primarily photographs, but also slides, films, articles, publicity, and biographical information relating to the Western Ways company's business of creating feature stories with related images for sale to local, national, and international magazines and other publications, ca. 1940-1970. Their focus was Western North American tourism and human interest stories; topics include art and artists, Native Americans, tourist destinations and much more.

47 boxes, 27 linear ft.

RELATED MATERIAL

MS 1056 consists of articles and business correspondence that relate to the photographs in this collection. A small collection of additional photographs is located at PC 151.

ACQUISITION

Donated by trustees for Lucile Herbert in July 1982.

ACCESS

There are no restrictions on access to this collection. A name and subject index is available for additional access.

COPYRIGHT

Requests for permission to publish material from this collection should be addressed to the Arizona Historical Society - Tucson, Archives Department. The Library and Archives holds copyright to the images taken by Charles Herbert and Peter Ballestrero; however, it is the researcher's responsibility to obtain copyright permission for images taken by other photographers. Permission to use must also be obtained from the AHS Archives Department.

PROCESSING

The collection was processed by Dena McDuffie and completed by Kim Frontz in June 2006.

HISTORICAL NOTE

Charles Herbert began his career in the 1920s as a newsreel cameraman working for Pathe News and later Fox Movietone News. He worked on projects in Asia, Africa, Europe and North and South America. He and his wife, Lucile, moved to Tucson in 1940 and operated the Western Ways Features Service, an association of freelance writers and photographers, providing articles and photographs to various publications.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Along with MS 1056, this collection contains the photographs and articles produced by the Western Ways Features Service from 1940 to about 1970 along with earlier records from the Herbert's newsreel projects. The Western Ways material mostly concerns Arizona but their focus was Western North America and Sonora, Mexico; Montana; and the Yellowstone National Park were also heavily photographed.

SERIES NOTES

Series 1: Biographical papers and photographs about the Herberts

Includes summaries of Charles Herbert's career and many images of Charles and Lucile Herbert, their homes and friends.

Series 2: Western Ways business activities

Includes advertising photographs for Chevrolet, Ford and Western Ways, images of an exhibit of WW photographs and WW offices, scrapbooks with examples of WW work, clippings about WW, and letters received. One scrapbook includes a signed photograph of Thomas Edison.

Series 3: Photographs of Charles Herbert and other WW photographers at work

Mainly images of Charles Herbert at work with his movie camera on location throughout the world but also some images of a tour of photographers at the Navajo Reservation showing lots of people with cameras taking pictures of Navajo scenes.

Series 4: Photographs – People

Photographs of prominent and lesser-known individuals including artists, scientists, actors, world leaders and others such as Ted DeGrazia, Thomas Edison, Frank Lloyd Wright, Louise Serpa, Will Rogers, Jr., Gen. George C. Marshall, Mao Tse-tung, and Chiang Kai-shek.

Series 5: Places – Local

Photographs taken throughout Arizona, mostly southern Arizona. The images vary from location to location but usually show street scenes, distant views, or businesses. Places represented include Douglas, Elgin, Oracle, Nogales, Patagonia and Sonoita, etc. There are images of homes, businesses, landmarks and more in Tucson.

Series 6: Places – National

Includes images of western states including California, Hawaii, Montana, New Mexico, and Wyoming.

Series 7: Places – International

Primarily photographs of Guaymas and other areas of Sonora, Mexico but also includes images of Asia, Europe, Africa, the West Indies, Central and South America.

Series 8: Subjects

Includes photographs based on topics such as agriculture, cattle, art, home construction, North American Indians of Arizona and New Mexico, San Xavier Mission, National parks and monuments, ranches and guest ranches, schools, and much more. Many of the subjects are located in Tucson and southern Arizona.

Series 9: Slides

Slides of scenic views of the same areas depicted in the photographs.

Series 10: Photograph albums

Three photograph albums with photographs of foreign travel and prominent people including Thomas Edison, William Jennings Bryan, and Jack Dempsey.

Series 11: Biographical papers and records

Additional material, similar to Series 1, of articles, newspaper clippings, and expense accounts relating to the Herberts' work before Western Ways was formed.

Series 12: Articles produced by Western Ways

Similar to MS 1056, this series is mostly articles about artists, tourist attractions, guest ranches, North American Indians in Arizona and other topics that relate to the photographs.
