HISTORICAL NOTE: Woodruff is a primarily Mormon community in Navajo County, Arizona. It was first settled in 1878.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: This collection consists of one ledger of financial records of the Woodruff School District No. 4 from 1901 to 1916. Miscellaneous historical notes covering the period 1877 to 1950 were appended to the ledger at a later date. The volume is divided into three parts. Ledger entries from 1901 to 1910 include expenses for the school district. The ledger covers names of teachers in Woodruff, names of men from Woodruff who served in World War II and historical information on the town.
